

A Sweet Story of Maine's Wild Blueberry

St. Croix District Meeting and Luncheon Hosted by the Bar Harbor Garden Club Thursday, May 17, 2018

LOCATION:

Northeast Harbor
Neighborhood House
1 Kimball Road
Northeast Harbor, ME

SPEAKER:

David Yarborough, PhD,
Wild Blueberry Specialist &
Professor of Horticulture,
University of Maine.
Topic: A Sweet Story: Maine's
Wild Blueberry Industry

CLUBS PLEASE RSVP BY:

April 30, 2018
Send names of club members attending and ONE check to:

St. Croix District GCFM
c/o Larry Mobraaten
11 Lorimer Road
Lamoine, ME 04605

TIME:

8:30 AM doors open
9:00 AM registration
Coffee, tea and morning
refreshments

TOUR:

Following lunch, visits to the Land and Garden Preserve:
Asticou Azalea, Thuya Gardens
& Little Long Pond. Land stewards will conduct guided tours. $5 donation requested.

FEE:

Luncheon/Registration $25

Reminder to Garden Clubs: Please bring six pre-priced items for Ways & Means and one item for the raffle supporting the Nell Goff Scholarship.

Blueberry illustration by the late BHGC member Ruth Soper.